

To the cast, crew and wonderful orchestra of Les Miserables

Thanks for such an exhilarating night in the theatre. You guys rocked it good last night. I still can't believe you put it all together in only three weeks. Having performed this show for over a year and a half for 8 shows a week, I didn't think I could feel anything for it any more. But I was wrong. -- I felt your commitment to the story. I felt the lyrics. I felt the music beautifully performed. But mostly I felt the potential of your tremendous talents.

If you feel the passion for it, you must do it. You know this and that's why you are there. It shows. Have a great run! I only wish I could see the other cast so I could stand up and cheer as I did last night.

Be proud of yourselves – every one of you.

Best wishes – Break your legs,

Janet Martin
